FROM DEATH TO LIFE AUSCHWITZ·BIRKENAU

BUILDING UPDATE Nº1: 27-8-2017

Dear Friends,

Let God Arise and let His enemies be scattered!

We've started to build!!

On Monday 21 August we started to build the building for the Prayer House that will face the gates of Auschwitz-Birkenau. This was truly a ground-breaking moment for us, where a dream and a vision that we have incubated for 9 years was physically grounded on the earth. This was a significant milestone for everyone who has been involved in this project so far.

A friend of ours who prays with us every week was given the first part of Psalm 86,

May God arise, may his enemies be scattered; may his foes flee before him; may you blow them away like smoke—as wax melts before the fire.

When the work started we felt there was a shaking in the atmosphere where everything was stirred and shaken up, like dust in a storm, and after a couple of days it all settled down again.

The first phase is the FOUNDATIONS and the BASEMENT.

Here are some of the latest pictures of the "dig" so far. It's a mighty hole that's 2m deep. The outside dimensions of the building will be 12.8m x 15m (that's an area of 192 sq. m) so there are mountains of earth being shifted.

Day 3: You can see the gates of Auschwitz-Birkenau in the background.

Day 6: Digging finished, now preparing for the 1st concrete to be poured.

Since there's a lot going on at the moment, we'll be sending out more frequent updates with pictures that will give you an idea of progress. Cathy is also putting pictures and video clips on our Facebook page, so if you want to have more details you can connect to that. Here's the link:

You don't need a Facebook account, just copy and paste this link into your web-browser. If it comes up with a pop-up box asking you to make an account, just click on "later" and then ignore all other pop-up boxes and click onto "Posts" in the menu.

We always love to hear from you.

For those who feel called to intercede for this work financially, please refer to the details below.

Love and blessings!
